

CCW BOARD MEETING MINUTES FEB. 1, 2024

The meeting began with prayer and Pledge of Allegiance.

Spirituality Commissioner Nancy F. stated that the book club of Ethical Excellence is winding down with 3 more meetings.

Pax Christi nominee Lisa Zwiefelhofer's name has been submitted to the Diocese . A framed photo of Lisa will be placed downstairs in the social hall.

Leadership Commissioner Bridgette A. updated the scholarship applications that are given out to females from St. Patrick's that are going on to college. A notice will be placed in the bulletin soon so that the winners can be chosen by May 1. CCW received thank you cards from the previous winners of 2023.

It was suggested that CCW Volunteer forms should be implemented on the website, so that ladies of the Parish could fill them out online.

Upcoming events for the CCW will be posted in the bulletin every couple of months to keep ladies of the Parish informed and hopefully get better responses when help is needed.

A suggestion was made that when the CCW holds socials, High School students that need confirmation hours could be of help.

Treasurer Nancy S. reported that St. Pat's Church has changed their banking to First State Bank and the CCW will switch as well. Current checkbook CCW balance is $9,778.94 Nancy also paid out to the respective colleges for the winners of the 2023 CCW scholarships.

President Barbara G. gave an update on the plans for the St. Patrick's Day breakfast for families. Cost will be $15 per adult and $10 per child, 5 years old and under will be free. Menu includes French toast, quiche, sausage, fruit and beverage. Barbara will look into an alternative placemat to be used. A type of shamrock charm, displayed on a centerpiece on each table, will be available for children to take.

CCW received an extra tip of $100 from the Hungerford family after serving their funeral luncheon. A thank you note was sent out.

St. Patrick Parish Mission will offer an interactive event: Accompanying Others in Suffering . This will be held the evening of Sunday, Feb. 18, from 6:30 p.m. to 8:30 p.m. CCW will provide hospitality of beverages and snacks.

Barbara G. made a Motion that 4 more rosaries be purchased at a cost of $150, to be available to use in the Chapel. Nancy S. seconded the Motion. Barbara also made a Motion to purchase more dish towels for the church kitchen. This was seconded by Nancy F. Both Motions passed.

Respectfully submitted,
Leigh Weiss, Secretary

